

REGARD WAR AS THE INEVITABLE

Opinion of the Best Informed Diplomats in Austria.

TIME HAS PASSED FOR INTERVENTION

Both Turkey and Greece Are Under Great Strain.

In view of the dangerous position assumed by Greece, the question is reiterated whether she does not count upon some power coming to her aid and support at a crucial moment—situation analogous to that of 1876.

Vienna, April 14.—The best informed diplomats here regard war as inevitable. They say the strain cannot longer be borne by either Turkey or Greece and that the time has passed for the powers to attempt to intervene. In view of the dangerous position assumed by Greece, the question is reiterated whether she does not count upon some power coming to her aid and support at a crucial moment—situation analogous to that of 1876.

Will Hit Back.

New York, April 14.—A dispatch to the Herald from Constantinople says: The Porte has addressed a note to the great powers drawing attention to the unreasonable action of Greece and declaring that Turkey will maintain a defensive attitude but in case of another invasion such as that of last Friday, and which was evidently prepared with the consent of the Hellenic authorities, the Porte will feel obliged to command its generalissimo to act in the same manner.

Troops Are Enthusiastic.

Larissa, April 14.—Trustworthy reports received here yesterday confirm the statement that the Greek irregulars have captured Belino in Macedonia. The Greeks lost 40 men killed, including Chief Daxilas, occupied a strong position in the mountains near Krano. Fresh troops continued to arrive here from the south. Another brigade was formed today to assist in the defense of the frontier. The enthusiasm of the troops is unabated. In Macedonia the weather is wet and cold, but in Thessaly fine weather prevails, permitting the military authorities to make preparations for an advance into Turkish territory or defending the frontier in the event of the Turks assuming the offensive, which is looked upon here as being more probable.

Dispatches received here today from the Greek expeditionary force says the irregulars have passed Kilioti, driving the Turks before them and pushing on for Travena, where a strong Turkish force—some reports say an army corps—is stationed.

There are rumors here of a ministerial change, but there are no signs of relaxation in the preparations for war, and there will be a feeling of relief when the hostilities commence.

A Family Jar.

Vienna, April 14.—The Tagblatt says today that sharp differences have arisen in the Greek royal family as to the proper course for the government to pursue. The crown princess, in defiance of her husband, and of King George, has gone entirely over to the war party.

Just a Joke.

Athens, April 14.—Colonel Metaxas, the Greek minister of war, received today a letter containing a mysterious substance, which he subsequently proved to be gelatine. The first supposition was that it was the act of an anarchist, but it is now believed to have been a practical joke.

No Chance With Russia.

London, April 15.—The Daily Mail's Paris correspondent says he had an interview with the financial delegate of the Russian government regarding the American bimetallic conference. The delegate stated that Mr. Dowd's financial policy is now sufficiently accepted by Russia, which is irrevocably committed to the gold standard. He added that in his opinion Great Britain, Austria and Germany would find insurmountable difficulties in the way of the adoption of international bimetalism.

Created a Sensation.

Athens, April 14.—On the reassembling of the Senate, M. Delyannis, the premier, introduced, in the presence of a crowded chamber, a bill granting the government a credit of 25,000,000 drachmas for the ministers of war and finance.

its full duty to the country. (Loud cheers.) Deputy Balli, the leader of the opposition, thought that in view of the existing circumstances, the time was not propitious to commence a demand upon the budget. M. Delyannis agreed with this suggestion, and said that tomorrow he would submit a vote on account for three months.

Absolute Union Only.

New York, April 14.—A copyrighted cable to the Journal from Cairo says: The Russian consul again interviewed the insurgents at Retimo. The most prominent leaders of the Cretans are Sapounjakis, who is related to high officials in Athens. The chief insisted that nothing but absolute union with Greece would satisfy them.

They refused to entertain Consul Domeric's proposition to choose delegates from all parts of the island to meet the admirals in conference at some point distant alike from the ships and Col. Vassos's lines. It seems perfectly evident that as long as Col. Vassos remains in the island it will be useless to confer with Cretans, who decline to believe that it is Europe's determination not to give Crete to Greece.

King George Interviewed.

London, April 15.—The Daily Chronicle will publish the following to-morrow from its Athens correspondent, Mr. Henry Norman:

In view of the audience with King George. He spoke without much hope, but firmly, like a man who can only do his duty and leave the rest to heaven. More than once he said: If Greece had been a great power, and had walked into Crete long ago, her action would have been welcomed by the powers as well as by the rest of the world as a just and reasonable one.

The European Concert.

London, April 14.—A dispatch to the Times from Constantinople says it is the opinion of the Porte's language to the powers, which remains courteous and plausible, but is tinged with a perceptible scorn, that the concert of the powers is no longer a reality, but a mere fiction, and that the concert of the powers is no longer a reality, but a mere fiction, and that the concert of the powers is no longer a reality, but a mere fiction.

The Reorganized Branch.

Lamon, Ia., April 14.—At today's conference of Latter-day Saints a new form of license was introduced. One action requesting that the seventies' quorum be allowed the privilege of using the church seal on the license was defeated. It was ordered that Mr. Shealy be ordained president of the seventies' quorum. Reports were read showing the great industry in the priests, the bishopric and the 12 apostles, and the large increase in its membership. Some changes were made in the way of transfers from one quorum to another and ordinations to advance stations were provided for.

Gives Aligned Away.

Chicago, April 14.—The Tribune to-morrow will print a copy of a letter purporting to be written by ex-Governor Aligned in 1893, in which he informs the trustees of the Illinois state university that President Spaulding of Chicago, who had been elected to the presidency of the university, had been elected to the presidency of the university, had been elected to the presidency of the university, had been elected to the presidency of the university.

THERE IS LESS DANGER IN OMAHA

Good, Hard Work Has Probably Won the Day.

OTHER SECTIONS ARE IN A VERY BAD WAY

SQUATTERS ALONG THE BOTTOMS FLEE IN THE NIGHT.

On the Iowa Side of the River, South of Council Bluffs, the Water Has Inundated Farms For a Distance of Three or Four Miles Back From the Stream—Flood Is the Worst Since the Inundation of 1881—Bad at Davenport and Other Places.

Omaha, April 14.—Tonight there is less danger of the threatened outburst by the Missouri river, and unless there is an unlooked-for rise or a high wind from the north it is not probable that much more damage will be done. The hastily-built dyke that stemmed the torrent from Florence lake on Tuesday was greatly strengthened today and has stopped the flow at the most threatening point. The water has spread all over the wider stretch of territory and surrounds a few more houses, but the change in channel of the Missouri has been averted, for the time being at least.

Up till midnight last night the river was stationary, but after that began to rise, and at 9 o'clock this morning the gauge at Florence pumping station showed a rise of nine inches. The wind was blowing strong from the south and this materially assisted in maintaining the rapid rise. It is still pouring rain here today, and the water is still rising. The water will not go off before June 15.

Another Wet Blanket.

Greenville, Miss., April 14.—Another wet blanket was thrown over the Mississippi valley today when the weather bureau rainfall report reached here. This makes even the most sanguine players give in. The water will not go off before June 15.

New Orleans, April 14.—The river here today rose to 187 feet, which is eight-tenths of a foot above the record. A rise of three-tenths came within a few hours of high tide. The sudden increase in water over the sack line damaging goods awaiting shipment and acts as an incentive to pile up stocks.

sible men. Nothing remains to be done in these districts except to ship supplies every week to the relief stations. So far no relief stations have been definitely established in any of the districts below Helena, but the army officers have been ordered to keep these districts on a tour of inspection after the relief stations are fixed the army officers will be able to supply the needs of all the flood sufferers in the entire overflooded country.

Prison Farm a Lake.

Leavenworth, Kan., April 14.—The river has risen a foot since yesterday noon and 48.5 higher than at any time since 1891. When the bottom bridge went out this morning it carried out a portion of the Rock Island tracks. This road and the Chicago & Great Western are compelled to use the Burlington tracks.

A large part of the Fort Leavenworth reservation on the Missouri side is under water, and the federal prison farm on the Kansas side is covered with lakes. The water is encroaching on buildings, the village across from Leavenworth and the several families have been forced to move.

Reached the Danger Line.

Kansas City, Mo., April 14.—The Missouri river reached the danger line of 21 feet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and is rising more rapidly than on Tuesday, in spite of its greater width. An additional rise of one foot is predicted by Friday noon.

RIVERA MAY SOON BE PUT ON TRIAL

At Present He is in the Cabanas Fortress.

NO ONE ALLOWED TO TALK TO HIM

SUMMARY COURT MARTIAL WILL BE HIS FATE.

This, However, Does Not Necessarily Imply That He Will Be Executed, Even Though He Be Convicted—Colonel Bacallao Is His Companion—Late Movements of Cubans and Spaniards.

Havana, April 14.—General Ruiz Rivera and Colonel Bacallao continue at Cabanas fortress uncommunicated, with strict orders that no one shall be admitted to see them except the prison officials. All that is known as to General Rivera's condition is that he occupies a comfortable room, nothing being known as to when he will be tried. The likelihood is that he will be tried by a summary court martial, but this does not imply that, even if sentenced he will be executed.

A Narrow Escape.

Havana, April 14.—(Via Key West, Fla.)—Banes, an important port on the north coast near Gibara, from which heavy annual exports of bananas and coconuts to the United States and Canada, and which is the site of the estate of St. Domingo & Co., American citizens, narrowly escaped complete destruction. The expedition under General Roloff, 2,400 rifles, 500,000 cartridges and several pieces of rapid-fire artillery, landed alongside the quay at Banes. General Calixto Garcia, with 5,000 men, came to protect the convoy of arms and ammunition, but as Roloff had no men to arm, Garcia was compelled to carry the arms into the town. It is reported that the insurgents, hearing that a Spanish gunboat might arrive at any moment, closed the entrance of the port with torpedoes. General Roloff, assisted by local hands and finally by the soldiers under General Garcia, commenced to fortify the heights around the port, hastily casting up trenches to make the port impregnable to any Spanish forces in the neighborhood.

KEEFER'S BAD BREAK.

Makes Broad Charges, But Does Not Care to Substantiate Them.

Topeka, Kan., April 14.—Representative H. A. Keefe of Leavenworth occupied much of the time of the investigating committee today. Keefe had made broad charges of corruption but showed no willingness to mention names or give other direct testimony. He had much to say of the committee on telegraph and telephones, of which he was chairman, but his testimony in this direction showed principally the existence of ill-feeling between himself and a majority of his committee, which had resulted in the committee blocking all his efforts toward legislation. Adjournment was taken until April 27, to give time for the serving of a number of subpoenas for additional witnesses.
